This Segregation of waste contest focused on:

The Eco club and Institution Innovation Council (IIC) of RMDEC organized a Eco contest in the title of segregation of waste at home on 10th June 2023. The objective of segregation of waste is Minimize the Production of Waste, Reduce Pollution Effects, Protect Groundwater Sources and Ensure Sustainability. By separating waste into different categories and processing each type of waste in the most appropriate way, we can reduce the amount of waste that ends up in landfills and incinerators, conserve resources, and protect the environment. Societies, also get enormous benefits of the harvested compost.

Eco club members are actively participating in this competition. The top three scorers are rewarded.
