This Eco Dumb Charades contest focused on:

The Eco club and Institution Innovation Council (IIC) of RMDEC organized a, Eco Dumb Charades Contest in the title of Think Clean Act Green on 18th February 2026.

National Pollution Control Day is observed annually to emphasize the urgent need to control pollution and to create awareness about its adverse effects on human health and the environment. In line with the guidelines of the Ministry of Education's Innovation Cell, the event was designed as an engaging, participatory learning activity to promote environmental consciousness among students.

The contest adopted an interactive and innovative approach where participants communicated pollution-related themes through non-verbal expressions. Students actively engaged in identifying and enacting concepts such as air pollution, water contamination, plastic waste management, climate change, renewable energy, conservation practices, and sustainable living habits.
